

WHAT IS THE NWSS SUMMER BAND CAMP?

The NWSS Music Department has been running the summer band camp for students in New Westminster and beyond for many years. The goal is to give students a place to make music and friends over the summer break, while giving middle school students a chance to make a connection to the high school – where they can meet some of the older students and teachers and make connections. Senior students are hired to tutor the younger musicians and run activities during the week. Each year a different theme is chosen for the camp.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Is there a performance?

Yes! The final day of the camp features a live performance in Queen's Park!

Do I need to bring my own instrument?

Please bring your own instrument if you have one, or please see about renting one beforehand. We do have some instruments on hand to lend, particularly larger instruments, but supply is limited.

Do I have to attend the entire three weeks?

No. You can choose to register for as much or as little of the camp as you like. The cost remains the same, however. We ask that you remind the directors if you cannot attend the final concert so that they can plan accordingly.

How do I register?
